

PRESS RELEASE

WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT Empowerment. Connection. Community.  BROOKE MALLOY Executive Director, Phyllis B. Frank Pride Center of Rockland County	WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT Empowerment. Connection. Community.  DR. JACQUELINE CASSAGNOL, PHD, MSN, RN, PMC Founder & President, Worldwide Community First Responder, Inc.	SERVICE WOMEN OF THE YEAR Empowerment. Connection. Community.  BONNIE WERK Vice President & Pearl River Manager III, TD Bank
---	---	---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

May 29, 2024

PRESS CONTACT:

Keri Cunningham

KeriCunningham@pyramidmg.com

845-348-1005, ext. 110

ROCKLAND BUSINESS WOMEN'S NETWORK TO HOST 2024 ANNUAL WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT LUNCHEON

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (May 2024): The Rockland Business Women's Network (RBWN) is proud to announce its 2024 Annual Women of Achievement Luncheon, scheduled for June 6, 2024, from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM at the Pearl River Hilton. This year marks a significant milestone as RBWN celebrates 45 years of empowering and honoring women in the Rockland County community.

The Women of Achievement Luncheon is a hallmark event for RBWN, recognizing the outstanding contributions and accomplishments of remarkable women who have made significant impacts in various fields. This year's honorees include:

- Dr. Jacqueline Cassagnol, PhD, MSN, RN, PMC – Founder and President, Worldwide Community First Responder (WCFR)
- Brook Malloy – Executive Director, Phyllis B. Frank Pride Center of Rockland County
- RBWN Service Woman of the Year: Bonnie Werk, Vice President, TD Bank

Additionally, RBWN will award scholarships to outstanding local students, continuing its commitment to supporting education and fostering future leaders in the community.

Tickets and sponsorship opportunities are still available for individuals, businesses and organizations looking to support RBWN's mission and honor the achievements of these exceptional women. All sponsors will receive special recognition across RBWN's social media platforms and digital communications, in the event journal, and during the luncheon.

"We are thrilled to celebrate 45 years of empowering women and honoring their achievements within our community," said Jill Cruz, RBWN President. "The Annual Women of Achievement Luncheon is a testament to the remarkable contributions of these exceptional women, and we look forward to recognizing their impact and inspiring future generations of leaders."

RBWN proudly acknowledges its corporate partners' ongoing support: Creative Financial Planning Incorporated, TD Bank, and WMC Health | Good Samaritan Health.

For more information about RBWN's Women of Achievement Luncheon, upcoming events, and membership details, please visit rbwn.org.

Members of the press can find the media-approved photos above at rbwn.org/media-room.

###

About Rockland Business Women's Network

RBWN's mission is to provide women with opportunities for professional and business growth through leadership, education, and networking. Our vision is to create a thriving and supportive women's business organization whose members build relationships and connections, work collaboratively, grow professionally, and contribute to the economic vitality of Rockland County. Since our founding in 1979, RBWN has evolved to become the region's leading organization for women with a membership representing a diverse set of professions, backgrounds, and experiences. RBWN's commitment to a focus on empowerment, connection, and community is visible through our networking events, high school student scholarships, and professional development fund.

PO Box 235, West Nyack NY | RBWN.ORG | 845.535.1011